

THE LATE MR. F. W. HENKEL.—A melancholy interest is attached to a paper by this author on Comets, published in this month's Knowledge. His death had occurred just before the issue of the number, but too close to the day of publication to allow of the insertion of a note to that effect.