

Obituary.

The Right Hon. Sir Gainsford Bruce.

Once more we have to regret the death of one of our original members. Gainsford Bruce was born in 1834, being the eldest son of the Rev. Dr. John Collingwood Bruce, whose name will occur to many in connection with the history of the Roman Wall and other antiquities of the North of England. He was educated at Glasgow University, and called to the Bar in 1859. After holding several important legal offices he was raised in 1892 to the position of Judge of the King's Bench Division of the High Court of Justice, from which he retired in 1904. He took considerable interest in astronomy, and was elected a Fellow of the Royal Astronomical Society in 1887. His death occurred on February 24.
