

THE LATE LIEUTENANT-COLONEL GEORGE D. BEAZLEY, late 83rd Foot, died at his residence, 74, Redcliffe Square, on the 8th inst., at the age of 68 years. He served with the force which attacked and destroyed the town of Malageah, West Coast of Africa, in May,

1855, and with the 83rd Regiment during the suppression of the Indian Mutiny. Colonel Beazley was present at the affair of Sanganeer, August 8, 1858, at the defeat of the Gwalior rebels at Kotaria, and at the surprise and attack of the rebels at Seckur. He received the medal with clasp for services in Central India. He was an original Member of this Association.