> also on Saturday afternoon BAA Exoplanets Division Meeting plus Exhibitors and Trade Stands

Sparsholt College is about 5 miles west of Winchester which has good train and motorway links. This location provides en-suite accommodation in modern student halls of residence, dark rural skies, and plenty of parking. Clear skies cannot be guaranteed but observing will be encouraged. Informal atmosphere, pleasant surroundings. The cost is £225 inc. VAT for members (only one may attend at the member rate for Affiliated Societies) and £255 inc. VAT for non-members. Priority will be given to BAA members and those staying the whole weekend. Those attending the whole weekend or only the Exoplanet Division meeting should book online at https://britastro.org/winchester2020 and please note you will need to be logged into your BAA Website account to receive the member price. Otherwise use this booking form which should be returned to the BAA Office. Cheques should be made payable to The British Astronomical Association. Payment must be made in full with your booking. It may not be possible to make repayment for cancellation after Friday 20th March as we cannot change our booking with the College after that date. Booking opens on Tuesday 3rd December. Early booking is advised. Friday and Saturday evenings will incorporate observing sessions so any portable equipment will be welcome.
