

Albert Holdsworth Dale.

It is with very great regret that the death is announced of Mr. A. H. Dale, on 16th January 1910. Mr. Dale, who had completed his 27th year on 5th December 1909, was joint Hon. Secretary and Hon. Treasurer of the New South Wales Branch for the Session 1908-9, and always took a keen interest in his work. Owing to the pressure of private business he resigned his position, but was suddenly called away on the threshold of life. He was of a kind, gentle, and courteous disposition, was not married, but left a widowed mother and a sister to mourn his loss.—W. J. MACDONNELL.
