

Samuel Fellows

An announcement of the death of Mr. Samuel Fellows of Wolverhampton has appeared in the public Press. The late Mr. Fellows was one of the original members of the Association (of whom there now remain twenty-five) and a Fellow of the Royal Astronomical Society since 1889. He died in his ninety-fourth year.